AgVenture D&M welcomes Matt Dreiling as AgVenture Yield Specialist

KENTLAND, IN (June 27, 2014) – Kentland, Indiana-based AgVenture D&M has announced hiring Matt Dreiling of Russellville, Kentucky to serve customers in their growing business. The locally owned and operated regional seed company will expand their reach to customers in western Kentucky, providing them with access to AgVenture® brand seed products and their unique approach to maximizing profitability on every acre.

AgVenture D&M Sales and Marketing Manager, Brian Maxwell said, “Growth is great when it allows you to further build a solid team. Matt’s depth of experience in sales and sales management will be a great asset to building our team in western Kentucky. He has proven to be very effective in delivering exceptional service to customers, assuring their many needs are met and expectations are exceeded.”

Maxwell added, “We are deeply committed to our goals of improving profitability on every acre. The strategic management practices of our Maximum Profit System™ have made a significant and positive difference for growers across this region – dramatically increasing yields, lowering costs per bushel and improving their overall profitability. Matt’s involvement will no doubt help us reach more growers across the region.”

Dreiling said, “This is an exciting company. AgVenture D&M has an outstanding product portfolio and combines it with year-round service to our customers. This is a dedicated team, focused on integrity at every level. The business of crop production has seen many changes in the past several years. Our team is highly trained and completely committed to improving profitability. I look forward to putting these unique tools and techniques to work.”

Dreiling, a native of Nebraska, holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Fort Hays State University in Kansas. He and his wife, Tiffany, live at Russellville with their 17 month old son, Brayden.

AgVenture, Inc. is the nation’s largest network of independently owned regional seed companies. Based in Kentland, Indiana, AgVenture provides this growing network of independently owned and managed seed business owners with seed products meeting exacting standards for quality, together with leading-edge genetics and technology. Since 1983, this unique marketing approach has allowed each individual company to match the hybrids it sells to the specific needs of the geographical area it serves. Combined with professional seed representation at a local level, AgVenture strives to help every grower realize more profit from every field.
